Press Release

“Indian Food Festival”

Date: 14 November 2025

As part of the ongoing “Celebration of Days of India in Tunisia,” the Embassy of India in Tunis, in collaboration with the Four Seasons Hotel Tunis and the India Tourism Development Corporation Ltd. (ITDC), has organized an Indian Food Festival – A Special Indian Culinary Journey from 13 to 16 November 2025 at the Azur Restaurant, Four Seasons Hotel, Gammarth La Marsa, Tunis.

The Festival offers an exceptional opportunity for food enthusiasts and cultural connoisseurs in Tunisia to experience the vibrant and diverse culinary heritage of India. Guests are being treated to an exquisite selection of authentic Indian delicacies, specially curated and prepared by renowned ITDC chefs, Mr. Chandan and Mr. Arjun.

More than a gastronomic showcase, the Festival immerses visitors in the rich tapestry of India’s flavors, colors, music, and traditions—celebrating the spirit of India through its cuisine, ambiance, and cultural warmth.

The event was inaugurated on 13 November 2025 at the Azur Restaurant by Ambassador H.E. Dr. Devyani Uttam Khobragade, together with the hotel’s senior managers, in the presence of distinguished guests and invitees. In her inaugural remarks, Ambassador Khobragade highlighted India’s rich and diverse culinary landscape and emphasized that Indian cuisine is not only about taste, but also about harmony, color, and the celebration of life itself.

The event was attended by members of the diplomatic community and international organizations, the Honorary Consul of Tunisia in Bengaluru, as well as prominent media personalities and food bloggers.

The Indian Food Festival will conclude on 16 November 2025 with a special closing Brunch at the Azur Restaurant, Four Seasons Hotel, Gammarth La Marsa, Tunis. For reservations kindly contact Four Seasons Hotel Tunis at: azur.tsh@fourseasons.com and Hotline: 58573048
